ler judge and democratic candidate a good audience at the court house this evening.

SENATOR GORE WANTS RELIEF FUND FOR INDIANS

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Senator Gore, in a bill introduced in the Senate, asks for an appropriation of $750,000 for the relief of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, this sum to reimburse the nations for expenses incurred by them in connection with the work of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship court, especially the Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish fee. The Lawton senator says that the treaties with the Indians provide that the allotment and enrollment process should be accomplished without cost to the tribes.

PROTECTION ASSURED AMERICAN PRISONER

MAN WHO SET MINES FOR INSURGENTS WILL BE TREATED FAIRLY.

ESTRADA WELL SATISFIED

Provisional Leader Well Pleased With United States Actions.

Washington, June 5.—Dr. Madriz, head of the de facto government of Nicaragua, will see to it that William P. Pittman, the young American who was captured while aiding the Estrada forces at Bluefields, is given protection and every right to which he is entitled. There will be no repetition of the summary justice practiced by Gen. Zelaya on the two Americans, Leonard Groce and Leroy Cannon, and the Managua authorities realize that they will be held strictly accountable to the United States for their treatment of the American prisoner.

This is the net outcome of Secretary Knox's prompt action looking to protect Pittman as soon as it was reported that he had fallen into the hands of the Madriz troops.

The authorities at Managua have informed state department through the American consulate there that a court martial for Pittman has not been ordered or thought of, and that he will be given fair treatment.

Fearing that Pittman may be unjustly dealt with, letters from Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Mrs. Pittman of Boston, mother of the young American have been sent to Secretary Knox. The state department feels sure that ample protection will now be accorded.

Estrada Well Satisfied.

Bluefields, Nicaragua, June 5.—Gen. Estrada, the leader of the provisional government, is well satisfied with the success which attended his engagement against Madriz forces under Generals Lara and Godey and has repeated the offer which he made last March to Madriz looking to the establishment of peace.

The conditions of Gen. Estrada's proposals provide for the friendly mediation of the United States, that country to designate the Nicaraguan whom it considers most fit to occupy the Presidency provisionally, neither Dr. Madriz nor Gen. Estrada being eligible, the provisional president to convoke elections for a constitutional president; the Nicaraguan government to recognize the revolutionary debt, the validity of its acts and to arrange for pensioning its disabled soldiers; certain monopolies and concessions to be abolished.

These conditions Madriz has already refused to accept on the occasion when they were first offered, while expressing the fullest confidence in the government of the United States, but in view of his latest reverses, the difficult conditions under which his military forces have been compelled to assume the aggressive, the lack of supplies and the delapidated conditions of his soldiers through lack of food, severe marches and bad sanitary conditions, it is expected by the provisional leaders that he will now give the proposals more serious consideration.

The conditions at Bluefields are giving the diplomatic representatives considerable concern, as all business has been interrupted and there are many wounded and helpless people to be taken care of.

KISSING TOO GENERAL SAYS OKLA. DENTIST

Resolution Passed to Make Care of Teeth Compulsory in Public Schools.

Tulsa, Okla., June 4.—The Oklahoma Dental Association in session here today passed a resolution urging the state health board to make the care of teeth compulsory in Oklahoma schools. It is said defective teeth is the cause of the spread of contagious diseases, because the habit of kissing is so general.

Open One Million Acres Arid Land.

Washington, June 4.—The interior department has designated under the enlarged homestead act approximately 1,000,000 acres of land in Wyoming not susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply. In Wyoming up to the present time the area of land so designated totals 14,500,000 acres.

The department also has designated approximately 15,000 acres of land in New Mexico under the same act, making the total so designated in that territory approximately 15,800,000 acres.

COUNTERFIT MONEY IN MISSOURI PEN

Had Been in Operation Over Twenty Years and Discovered by Government Officers.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 5.—A fully equipped counterfeiting plant in operation at the state penitentiary at Jefferson City for twenty years was raided today by government inspector Edward J. McHugh.

Molds, fire pots, spurious coins and other paraphernalia were confiscated and two prisoners arrested. Both confessed having made spurious half dollars, quarters and 5c pieces.

The plant, Inspector McHugh declares, has been in the penitentiary for twenty years and has been handed down from prisoner to prisoner. The men arrested are a five-year man from Kansas City and another long-term prisoner from there.

A quarrel between four prisoners occupying the same cell regarding the division of the spoils was responsible for the raid.

The government was applied for warrants charging the prisoners with counterfeiting.

Gov. Hadley announced today that he will pardon both men in October when the federal court convenes.

that they may be prosecuted. Three molds used by the counterfeiters, were found in the cell occupied by Jaynes and Vail. Two sets of these were for 50c pieces, one for 25c and the other for 5c pieces. A small plaster of paris furnace used for heating the metal was dug from under the cell floor. This furnace was constructed to permit a receptacle four inches square setting in the center of it. Charcoal was used for fuel.

INDIAN JAILED ON GRAVE CHARGE

Harrison Porter who lives about three miles south of town was arrested in Ada this morning on a charge of criminally assaulting his thirteen years old step daughter over six months ago. He was taken before Justice Brown and was committed to jail without bond.

W. B. Adair and Chas. Brody made the arrest this morning with out any difficulty.

When the state of Oklahoma entered the union it became the heir of Oklahoma territory. In other words, it inherited all the collected revenues and all the unpaid debts of the old territorial government. It inherited in cash collected for current expenses three hundred and fifty-seven thousand dollars. It inherited in territorial debts one million two hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars. It also inherited a debt of seventy thousand dollars in interest on the unpaid territorial debt.
Subtract the collected revenue from the unpaid debts and you have a difference of nine hundred and forty-one thousand dollars. Such is the legacy bequeathed by a republican territory to a democratic state.

The monthly report of Milas Laster, state insurance commissioner, for the month of May, shows that the amount of money collected from the insurance companies by the insurance department for the month was $4,114.05. This increases the amount collected for the year since January 1st to $178,481.05. This is a remarkable showing for this department, as well as a remarkable showing for democratic administration. The total amount collected for the year 1906—the last full year of territorial government—was only $21,628.32. The total amount collected by this department for the four years immediately prior to statehood was $75,595.07. Since statehood there has been collected $424,192.97. The amount already collected for the present year exceeds the total amount collected for the four years immediately prior to statehood by more than $100,000.

In the year 1909 the cost of state government in Kansas was $3,669,537. In Oklahoma for the same year the cost of state government was $2,160,226.

In that year the common people of Kansas paid in direct taxes $2,662,874. The corporations and franchises paid $1,066,626.

In the same mentioned year the common people of Oklahoma paid in direct taxes $730,000. The corporations and franchises paid $1,430,226.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Kansas, the common people paid 75 cents. The corporations and franchises paid only 27 cents.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Oklahoma, the common people paid only 38 cents. The corporations and franchises paid 62 cents.

In Kansas the laws are dictated in the making by the Santa Fe and other railroads. In Oklahoma the laws are made for the whole people.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS WRECK HUNDRED HOUSES

Santiago, Cuba, Is Panic Stricken. Buildings Shake and Fall With Great Destruction.

New Orleans, La., June 5.—A cablegram received by the Texas News Service Bureau here yesterday from Havana, Cuba, gives information that forty people are known to be injured one hundred houses wrecked and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed as the result of an earthquake at Santiago early today. While details are meager because of incomplete communications with the stricken city no loss of life is reported.

The first shock created a panic and the people rushed pell mell into the streets, only to be caught, many of them, under falling walls and crumbling chimneys when succeeding shocks wrought destruction.

Santiago is a city on the southern coast of the island of Cuba and has 45,000 inhabitants. This vicinity was the scene of the famous charge of the Rough Riders and the Tenth Infantry up San Juan Hill during the Spanish-American war. The Bay of Santiago was the place where the Merrimac was sunk in an attempt to bottle up the Spanish fleet which was followed by Schley's notable victory when the Spanish vessels emerged.

UNCLE SAM MAY PUT ON BARGAIN SALE IN PANAMA

New York, June 4.—Possibly in time for this summer's year, possibly not until straw hat weather is nearly or quite over for the season, the greatest bargain sale in Panama ever held is in prospect, and Uncle Sam will be the auctioneer.
Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department, Collector Loeb and United States District Attorney Wise talked over the recent seizure of Panama hats today, and decided that proceedings should be taken in the federal courts for the forfeiture and condemnation. The hats, invoiced as being valued at $65,000, were said to be worth $112,000 and with duty added would be worth $160,000. Goods seized in this way by the government are sold at auction.

SUNDAY SERVICES CONDUCTED BY LADIES

MISS HEAD AND MRS. JOHNSON ADDRESS LARGE AUDIENCES.

Officers Elected This Morning—Mangum Will Entertain Next Conference.

Miss Head who is genial secretary of the W. H. M. S. of the Southern Methodist church, held the large audiences who heard her speak at the Methodist church Sunday almost spell bound. She is thoroughly informed along all lines of Home Mission work and is a woman of charming personality.

At the Sunday school hour she talked to the children, leaving with them, and with the older ones as well, pictures of those in our home land who are not fortunate in having Sunday schools near enough to attend, or who live in the crowded cities with wicked parents who will not allow them to attend the christian schools and churches, those who live in the mountains and have never seen a Bible. Sending the gospel to these is a part of the Home Mission work.

At 3 o'clock she addressed the young people on their opportunities and their being the hope and the inspiration of the church.

Sunday evening the choir rendered a beautiful musical program.

Mrs. W. H. Johnson of Dallas, who is superintendent and financial agent of the Mission Rescue Home in Dallas for friendless girls spoke about the good work and great need of the home. Mrs. Johnson is the founder of the home, and during the 17 years she has been there, 1200 girls have been saved. She edits a very newsworthy and largely circulated paper, "The King's Messenger," which in a small measure, helps defray expenses of the home. A free will offering of $53 was given Mrs. Johnson for the building fund. They are planning for a much needed building to accommodate many who might enter but for lack of room for accommodations.

Miss Head's address was replete with information on the work being accomplished and needs yet to be met by the organized Home Mission workers. One of the main features stressed was that the christians of the United States should meet the masses of foreigners coming into our country with the gospel of Christ and lend protection to the young people. The Home Mission society already has missionaries in three of our largest ports.

The following officers were elected by the conference this morning for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. R. M. Campbell.
1st Vice President, Mrs. Cassie Shown, Mangum.
2nd Vice President, Mrs. W. B. Gill, Hugo.
3rd Vice President, Mrs. S. F. Goddard, Holdenville.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Whittington, Ardmore.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. C. Fowler, Henrietta.

Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Mercer, McAlester.

Pressing invitations were sent from Mangum, Pauls Valley and Lawton to the conference to meet with them next year.

Mangum was the chosen place of meeting.

OLD CORN DOCTOR ROBBED

CARRIED $7,000 ON PERSON

Snyder, Okla., June 4.—M. C. Hancock, formerly of this place, has been arrested at Moffat, Col., and returned to Snyder to face a charge of robbing Louis Albright, an eccentric old corn doctor of $7,000 on February 22, 1909. Albright was afraid of banks and carried the money in a leather belt on his person. It is claimed that Hancock knocked Albright in the head and left him for dead in an alley way. Hancock ran a hotel in Snyder. Immediately after the robbery he sold out and moved to Moffat, where it is alleged he started a bank with the stolen money. Hancock has been indicted by the grand jury.

EGYPTIAN COMMITTEE SAY TEDDY INSULTED THE WORLD

Geneva, Switzerland, June 4.—The Young Egyptian committee today issued a violent protest against the sentiments expressed by Theodore Roosevelt in his speech at the Guild hall in London, in which he expressed the opinion that Great Britain should show a firmer hand in Egypt. The committee declares that the speech was an insult not only to Europe, but to the whole civilized world.

RAILROAD RATES UP TO TAFT

The President Will Fight It Out With Railroad Representatives Today.

Washington, June 6.—The government and the railroads are resting on their arms pending the preliminary battle to be waged between President Taft and the presidents and attorneys of railroads at the White House today.

The attitude of the railroads does not warrant the assumption that they are going to the White House to submit to the presidential policy. On the contrary, all the acts of the railroads up to date have been in direct opposition to the plans of the administration and to its announced ideas respecting the regulating of rates and railroads.

The question of the eastern railroads and the raising of rates in the east is now clearly up to the president. It is his action that is being looked for and it is his views which are of special interest at this time. The attorney general has stated frankly what he can do and what his limitations are.

Evidence in Plenty.

Plenty of evidence was forthcoming in the case of the western railroads. The shippers were alert in that instance. So far no complaint has been made in such direct terms as to warrant the immediate action of the attorney general. It is not likely in fact that he will act at all until he meets the president on Monday.

This much can be said, and it is said on the highest authority. The attorney general will assume that there is nothing the matter with the raise in the eastern rates unless some one complains to him and shows good reason for the complaint.

It is regarded as extremely remarkable at the department of justice that considering all the outcry against acts of the eastern railroads there is as yet no complaint filed against them.

The attorney general has stated explicitly that he could not proceed against the eastern railroad people without evidence, and also stated that the cases of the western and eastern railroads are very urgent. In fact, he says that the western railroad case is unique.

Apathy in Way.

The apparent apathy of the shippers affected by the eastern railroads is a phenomenon unexplainable by the department of justice. It is certain that if there be no evidence to sustain the suspicion of conspiracy or joint action in restraint of trade, the attorney general cannot file a petition for injunction.

There is only one other way of proceeding against the eastern railroads. The president can order the interstate commerce commission to consider specific cases in which tariffs have been raised to test their fairness. This is a slow process which will continue so until the new railroad bill goes into effect with its commerce court. That court was intended to do away with the law's delays.

MADRIZ ARMY COMPLETELY CRUSHED

The Insurgents Win a Telling Victory—100 Killed, 400 Are Wounded.

Bluefields, June 4.—The Madriz army has been crushingly defeated in its last stand by General Mena, insurgent commander at Rama, according to advices received here today. General Chacarraria commander of the regular army at Rama has been routed and the remnants of his column are fleeing after the scattered Madriz forces that attacked this city. It is reported that more than 100 were killed and 400 hurt.

Reports received today declare that Gen. Chacarraria can not escape, having headed for a trap when he abandoned the siege of Rama. Mena ordered that he be surrounded and himself directed the pursuit.

The defeat of the Madriz army at Bluefields directly resulted in the Rama insurgent victory. General Chamorro, commander of the ill-fated Managua expedition, being detailed to succor Mena with 600 men from Bluefields. On the arrival of reinforcements, the Rama chief demanded the surrender of Chacarraria within 12 hours.

The latter replied with an attack on a hill commanding Rama. In the three hours battle that followed the fighting was furious, ending in the flight of the regulars.

Uncle Sam Makes Move.

Washington, June 2.—The state department late this afternoon, aroused over the capture of W. T. Pittham of Boston by the Madriz forces while fighting with Estrada's troops, sent the following dispatch to the American consul at Managua:

"There is a newspaper report from San Juan Del Sur that W. T. Pittham, an American citizen, who is alleged to have laid mines while operating with Estrada's forces, has been made prisoner by the Madriz troops and is about to be tried by court martial today.

"It is unnecessary to point out that this government will jealously scrutinize the treatment accorded him which must be humane and regular. You will immediately make inquiries and report to the department."

A copy of the cablegram was sent to United States consul Moffat at Bluefields and to Commander Gilmer of the United States steamship Paducah.

"O. HENRY" WELL KNOWN WRITER IS DEAD

Began Career in Texas and Won a Wide Reputation—Short Story Writer.

New York, June 5.—William Sidney Porter, known best under his pen name of "O. Henry," as the writer of short stories, died today at Polytechnic hospital. He underwent an operation last Friday afternoon and never rallied. The nature of his ailment was not made known.

Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was telegraphed, but did not arrive here until after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Greensboro, N. C., forty-six years ago and began his journalistic career on the Houston Post. Before that he had been cowboy, sheep herder and druggist and active traveler. The general public new little of his private life, for he shunned interviewers and was content to be known merely through his writings as "O. Henry."

His breezy paragraphs penned in Texas, first drew attention to the young writer several years ago, when he launched forth with his "Day Stories" for a New York daily paper and was recognized as a writer of ability. Magazine stories followed and his fame was assured. It was only two years ago, however, that any but his closest friends knew his real name. Then he reluctantly consented to have his photograph printed with a brief biographical sketch.

Taft's Tariff Defense Tardy.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Defense of the tariff bill by the regular republicans of the senate and house has come too late to get the attention of the people. The defense should have been begun as soon as prices began to be increased after the passage of the bill. Men like Payne and Fordney have made very fine arguments in support of the law, and have demonstrated that many prices have been raised without any warrant from the tariff, but these long demonstrations will not reach the people. The people believe that the tariff law is the cause of high prices, and even if they are deceived they are likely to give expression to their feelings when they vote next November.

THE HOME MISSION CONFERENCE CLOSES

GUESTS APPRECIATE BEAUTIFUL
ENTERTAINMENT IN ADA
HOMES.

BEST SESSION EVER HELD

Report of Committee on Resolutions for Courtesies Extended by Ada.

The Woman's Home Mission Conference which has been in session
since Thursday evening, closed this morning.

It was a large and intelligent body
of christian women from over the state who attended this meeting. One hundred twenty-three delegates and
visitors were entertained in homes
of our city. The president, Mrs. R. M.
Campbell, stated that this had been
the most successful conference in every way they had ever had and that they never received such a heartly welcome from any city, nor had been so beautifully entertained as
by the people of Ada; in fact, that seemed to be the sentiment of all the delegates and visitors.

Harmony appeared to pervade
through all the business sessions.
Many hostesses were heard to say
they had fallen so much in love with their guests they were sorry to see them leave.

The majority of them left this morning, a few remained until the afternoon trains.

The following report was read at
the close of the morning session:

"We, your committee on Resolutions submit the following:

1. Resolved that we offer thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for
the privilege of meeting together
again in this the 19th session of the Annual Conference of the W. H. M. S., which we believe has been the most successful meeting ever held.

2. That we express our gratitude and appreciation to the Methodist ladies of Ada and our hostesses for their cordiality and kind hospitality.

3. That we tender our thanks to the Press and all others who have contributed to the interest of our work.

4. That we have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful recitations and music given during our various sessions
by the choir and others.

5. That we thank the ministers,
presiding elders, and other brethren
for their kindly interest and services
and pray God's richest blessings may
ever be on this church and people.

6. That we are grateful to the ladies of the H. M. S. and Philathea class for the beautiful luncheon served at the noon hour, also thank the little pages, Misses Leona Chauncey, Clemmie Barringer, Will Tom Truett for their efficient service and the president of the state bank for the delicious basket of peaches.

7. That we are grateful to have had the efficient and beautiful services rendered to the conference by Miss Mabel Head and Mrs. W. H.
Johnson.

Mrs. Shown, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs.
Blackell, Mrs. Baumgardner; Mrs. G.
Alexander, Secretary.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED BY LITTLE BROTHER

Shorty Brownfield, Farmer Boy Living Near Ada Shot and Killed
by "Unloaded Gun."

Saturday about one o'clock in the afternoon Shorty Brownfield, who lived on a farm seven miles east of here was accidentally shot and killed
by his little six year old brother.
The two brothers, aged sixteen and
six respectively were hoeing cotton
and it seems had a gun in the field
with them. They had been working with the gun, having snapped it two or three times and, as it failed to report, thought it was unloaded. The younger boy playfully said to his brother, "If you don't show me how to work this gun I am going to shoot
you," and pointing it at his brother's head pulled the trigger. The gun fired, the older boy fell fatally wounded with a gunshot wound over his left eye. The poor boy survived only
a short time dying Sunday morning.

And thus another life is bought
with the price of an unloaded gun.

THINGS THAT ARE SUPREME

REV. RANDOLPH COOK OF ENID
DELIVERS INSPIRING BACCA-
LAUREATE SERMON.

ADVICE TO THE GRADUATES

Deals With Things That Should Be
Supreme in Every Life.

It was truly a magnificent congregation which filled the Methodist church to overflowing yesterday
morning and which was soon to hear
a magnificent sermon pregnant with truth and inspiration. The baccalaureate sermon which not only was deeply impressive to the E. C. N.
seniors, but to all who had the opportunity of hearing it was delivered
by the Rev. Randolph Cook of Enid.

Mr. Cook spoke on the topic, "Some Things That Are Supreme."

After congratulating the audience
and the school management on the successful school year just closing,
Mr. Cook spoke in part as follows:
"The universe is God's great universe for the development of character. Here we find a multitude of teachers, speaking to us in all the voices of earth and air, nature and grace, Moses and the prophets, Jesus and the apostles, and all the men who have illuminated the world by their thought and enriched it by their example."

"The great problem in every age,"
said the speaker, "with every cause,
is the problem of the man. Diogenes
went through the streets of his city,
with lantern in hand, looking for a man. That process is being repeated everywhere today. This is true in the church, business and in all walks of life. Because it is the supreme business of the schools to produce men
and women of high character, do we consider them today. First of all I wish to emphasize

1. A cultivated mind the Supreme force in Life.

The things that make a man great are his thoughts. They are the dominating, determining, controlling thing about a man. His clothes may be laid off at any time, his manners are often assumed, the tissues of the body
are regularly changed, but the thing
that abides is thought; it survives
all, and the thing we weave out of them is immortal. This is true of man, nations, ages, and eras. It is also true of Deity.

"Knowledge is power." Archimedes lever is not as great as his mind. The pyramids are justly regarded as one of the wonders of the world, but the mind that conceived them is greater than they. Caesar ruled the world, and Alexander signed for more worlds to conquer, but the modern cylinder press has outdone them
both. Back of Luther, Cromwell,
Washington and Lincoln were ideas—
a mighty invisible force—that were slowly undermining falsehood.

I trust, young people, that your education has not taken you into a beautiful room, filled with the choicest productions of art, or the highest works of genius, but rather that it has taken you to the mountain peak
of opportunity.

2. Obedience to Law the Supreme
Condition.

Obedience to law is the real condition of success in life, (1) In the realm of intellect, (2) in morals, and
(3) in the realm of religion. If you keep the law, the law will keep you.

3. Love for Work the Supreme Motive.

Love is not only the law of religion, it is the law of civilization.
The immortal saviours of society have been a few brave leaders who saw
that love and hate were at the zenith
and nadir of human development.
Love is the great dynamo of life. It is a nightingale, and sings in the darkness. Disappointments come, but don't give up; life's battles are won by inspiration and not by fear. What the spring is to the watch, what the fountain is to the stream, what the soul is to the body, so is love to the life of man.

4. Character the Supreme Attainment.

Men are asking today, not so much
"From What school does a man
come?" but "How much of a man is
he?"

"It is well to have good schools,
fine libraries, laboratories, and that
the graduates come out KNOWING something, but it is infinitely better
that they come out being something."

"Everything in life is according to a hidden pattern, and man too must
have his ideal of life."

After emphasizing these various points, the speaker closed by saying:
"Young people I bid you go forward.
Welcome all that comes to you. The clouds will be your helpers, if you only will it so. Look to the future,
and push on modestly, and never boastingly, fearing neither time, nor space, ocean or desert, nor any possible toil or sorrow, nor death. Life's

SENATOR GORE WANTS RELIEF FUND FOR INDIANS

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Senator Gore, in a bill introduced in the Senate, asks for an appropriation of $750,000 for the relief of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, this sum to reimburse the nations for expenses incurred by them in connection with the work of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship court, especially the Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish fee. The Lawton senator says that the treaties with the Indians provide that the allotment and enrollment process should be accomplished without cost to the tribes.

PROTECTION ASSURED AMERICAN PRISONER

MAN WHO SET MINES FOR INSURGENTS WILL BE TREATED FAIRLY.

ESTRADA WELL SATISFIED

Provisional Leader Well Pleased With United States Actions.

Washington, June 5.—Dr. Madriz, head of the de facto government of Nicaragua, will see to it that William P. Pittman, the young American who was captured while aiding the Estrada forces at Bluefields, is given protection and every right to which he is entitled. There will be no repetition of the summary justice practiced by Gen. Zelaya on the two Americans, Leonard Groce and Leroy Cannon, and the Managua authorities realize that they will be held strictly accountable to the United States for their treatment of the American prisoner.

This is the net outcome of Secretary Knox's prompt action looking to protect Pittman as soon as it was reported that he had fallen into the hands of the Madriz troops.

The authorities at Managua have informed state department through the American consulate there that a court martial for Pittman has not been ordered or thought of, and that he will be given fair treatment.

Fearing that Pittman may be unjustly dealt with, letters from Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Mrs. Pittman of Boston, mother of the young American have been sent to Secretary Knox. The state department feels sure that ample protection will now be accorded.

Estrada Well Satisfied.

Bluefields, Nicaragua, June 5.—Gen. Estrada, the leader of the provisional government, is well satisfied with the success which attended his engagement against Madriz forces under Generals Lara and Godey and has repeated the offer which he made last March to Madriz looking to the establishment of peace.

The conditions of Gen. Estrada's proposals provide for the friendly mediation of the United States, that country to designate the Nicaraguan whom it considers most fit to occupy the Presidency provisionally, neither Dr. Madriz nor Gen. Estrada being eligible, the provisional president to

convoke elections for a constitutional president; the Nicaraguan government to recognize the revolutionary debt, the validity of its acts and to arrange for pensioning its disabled soldiers; certain monopolies and concessions to be abolished.

These conditions Madriz has already refused to accept on the occasion when they were first offered, while expressing the fullest confidence in the government of the United States, but in view of his latest reverses, the difficult conditions under which his military forces have been compelled to assume the aggressive, the lack of supplies and the dilapidated conditions of his soldiers through lack of food, severe marches and bad sanitary conditions, it is expected by the provisional leaders that he will now give the proposals more serious consideration.

The conditions at Bluefields are giving the diplomatic representatives considerable concern, as all business has been interrupted and there are many wounded and helpless people to be taken care of.

Open One Million Acres Arid Land.

Washington, June 4.—The interior department has designated under the enlarged homestead act approximately 1,000,000 acres of land in Wyoming not susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply. In Wyoming up to the present time the area of land so designated totals 14,500,000 acres.

The department also has designated approximately 15,000 acres of land in New Mexico under the same act, making the total so designated in that territory approximately 15,800,000 acres.

COUNTERFIT MONEY IN MISSOURI PEN

Had Been in Operation Over Twenty Years and Discovered by Government Officers.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 5.—A fully equipped counterfeiting plant in operation at the state penitentiary at Jefferson City for twenty years was raided today by government inspector Edward J. McHugh.

Molds, fire pots, spurious coins and other paraphernalia were confiscated and two prisoners arrested. Both confessed having made spurious half dollars, quarters and 5c pieces.

The plant, Inspector McHugh declares, has been in the penitentiary for twenty years and has been handed down from prisoner to prisoner. The men arrested are a five-year man from Kansas City and another long-term prisoner from there.

A quarrel between four prisoners occupying the same cell regarding the division of the spoils was responsible for the raid.

The government was applied for warrants charging the prisoners with counterfeiting.

Gov. Hadley announced today that he will pardon both men in October when the federal court convenes.

Three molds used by the counterfeiters, were found in the cell occupied by Jaynes and Vail. Two sets of these were for 50c pieces, one for 25c and the other for 5c pieces. A small plaster of paris furnace used for heating the metal was dug from under the cell floor. This furnace was constructed to permit a receptacle four inches square setting in the center of it. Charcoal was used for fuel.

Porter, it is alleged, has the reputation of being a bad Indian, having served a term in the penitentiary for murder.

W. B. Adair and Chas. Brody made the arrest this morning with out any difficulty.

When the state of Oklahoma entered the union it became the heir of Oklahoma territory. In other words, it inherited all the collected revenues and all the unpaid debts of the old territorial government. It inherited in cash collected for current expenses three hundred and fifty-seven thousand dollars. It inherited in territorial debts one million two hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars. It also inherited a debt of seventy thousand dollars in interest on the unpaid territorial debt.
Subtract the collected revenue from the unpaid debts and you have a difference of nine hundred and forty-one thousand dollars. Such is the legacy bequeathed by a republican territory to a democratic state.

The monthly report of Milas Lester, state insurance commissioner, for the month of May, shows that the amount of money collected from the insurance companies by the insurance department for the month was $4,114.05. This increases the amount collected for the year since January 1st to $178,481.05. This is a remarkable showing for this department, as well as a remarkable showing for democratic administration. The total amount collected for the year 1906—the last full year of territorial government—was only $21,628.32. The total amount collected by this department for the four years immediately prior to statehood was $75,595.07. Since statehood there has been collected $24,192.97. The amount already collected for the present year exceeds the total amount collected for the four years immediately prior to statehood by more than $100,000.

In the year 1906 the cost of state government in Kansas was $3,669,537. In Oklahoma for the same year the cost of state government was $2,160,226.

In that year the common people of Kansas paid in direct taxes $2,669,574. The corporations and franchises paid $1,666,626.

In the same mentioned year the common people of Oklahoma paid in direct taxes $330,000. The corporations and franchises paid $1,430,226.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Kansas, the common people paid 73 cents. The corporations and franchises paid only 27 cents.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Oklahoma, the common people paid only 33 cents. The corporations and franchises paid 67 cents.

In Kansas the laws are dictated in the making by the Santa Fe and other railroads. In Oklahoma the laws are made for the whole people.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS WRECK HUNDRED HOUSES

Santiago, Cuba, Is Panic Stricken. Buildings Shake and Fall With Great Destruction.

New Orleans, La., June 5.—A cablegram received by the Texas News Service Bureau here yesterday from Havana, Cuba, gives information that forty people are known to be injured and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed as the result of an earthquake at Santiago early today. While details are meager because of incomplete communications with the stricken city no loss of life is reported.

The first shock created a panic and the people rushed pell mell into the streets, only to be caught, many of them, under falling walls and crumbling chimneys when succeeding shocks wrought destruction.

Santiago is a city on the southern coast of the island of Cuba and has 45,000 inhabitants. This vicinity was the scene of the famous charge of the Rough Riders and the Tenth Infantry up San Juan Hill during the Spanish-American war. The Bay of Santiago is the place where the Merrimac was sunk in an attempt to bottle up the Spanish fleet which was followed by Schley's notable victory when the Spanish vessels emerged.

UNCLE SAM MAY PUT ON BARGAIN SALE IN PANAMA

New York, June 4.—Possibly in time for this summer's year, possibly not until straw hat weather is fairly or quite over for the season, the greatest bargain sale in Panama ever held is in prospect, and Uncle Sam will be the auctioneer.

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department, Collector Loeb and United States District Attorney Wise talked over the recent seizure of Panama hats today, and decided that proceedings should be taken in the federal courts for the forfeiture and condemnation. The hats, invoiced as being valued at $65,000, were said to be worth $12,000 and with duty added would be worth $160,000. Goods seized in this way by the government are sold at auction.

SUNDAY SERVICES CONDUCTED BY LADIES

MISS HEAD AND MRS. JOHNSON ADDRESS LARGE AUDIENCES.

Officers Elected This Morning—Mangum Will Entertain Next Conference.

Miss Head who is genial secretary of the W. H. M. S. of the Southern Methodist church, held the large audiences who heard her speak at the Methodist church Sunday almost spell bound. She is thoroughly informed along all lines of Home Mission work and is a woman of charming personality.

At the Sunday school hour she talked to the children, leaving with them, and with the older ones as well, pictures of those in our home land who are not fortunate in having Sunday schools near enough to attend, or who live in the crowded cities with wicked parents who will not allow them to attend the Christian schools and churches; those who live in the mountains and have never seen a Bible. Sending the gospel to those is a part of the Home Mission work.

At 3 o'clock she addressed the young people on their opportunities and their being the hope and the inspiration of the church.

Sunday evening the choir rendered a beautiful musical program. Mrs. W. H. Johnson of Dallas, who is superintendent and financial agent of the Mission Rescue Home in Dallas for friendless girls, spoke about the good work and great need of the home, and during the 17 years she has been there, 1200 girls have been saved. She edits a very newsy and largely circulated paper, "The King's Messenger," which in a small measure, helps defray expenses of the home. A free will offering of $53 was given Mrs. Johnson for the building fund. They are planning for a much needed building to accommodate many who might enter but for lack of room for accommodations.

Miss Head's address was replete with information on the work being accomplished and needs yet to be met by the organized Home Mission workers. One of the main features stressed was that the Christians of the United States should meet the masses of foreigners coming into our country with the gospel of Christ and lend protection to the young people. The Home Mission society already has missionaries in three of our largest ports.

The following officers were elected by the conference this morning for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. R. M. Campbell.
1st Vice President, Mrs. Cassie Shown, Mangum.
2nd Vice President, Mrs. W. B. Gill, Hugo.

3rd Vice President, Mrs. S. F. Goddard, Holdenville.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Whittington, Ardmore.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. C. Fowler, Henrietta.

Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Mercer, McAlester.
Pressing invitations were sent from Mangum, Pauls Valley and Lawton to the conference to meet with them next year.

Mangum was the chosen place of meeting.

OLD CORN DOCTOR ROBBED

CARRIED $7,000 ON PERSON

Snyder, Okla., June 4.—M. C. Hancock, formerly of this place, has been arrested at Mofat, Col., and returned to Snyder to face a charge of robbing Louis Albright, an eccentric old corn doctor of $7,000 on February 22, 1909. Albright was afraid of banks and carried the money in a leather belt on his person. It is claimed that Hancock knocked Albright in the head and left him for dead in an alley way. Hancock ran a hotel in Snyder. Immediately after the robbery he sold out and moved to Mofat, where it is alleged he started a bank with the stolen money. Hancock has been indicted by the grand jury.

EGYPTIAN COMMITTEE SAY TEDDY INSULTED THE WORLD

Geneva, Switzerland, June 4.—The Young Egyptian committee today issued a violent protest against the sentiments expressed by Theodore Roosevelt in his speech at the Guild hall in London, in which he expressed the opinion that Great Britain should show a firmer hand in Egypt.

The committee declares that the speech was an insult not only to Europe, but to the whole civilized world.

RAILROAD RATES UP TO TAFT

The President Will Fight It Out With Railroad Representatives Today.

Washington, June 6.—The government and the railroads are resting on their arms pending the preliminary battle to be waged between President Taft, and the presidents and attorneys of railroads at the White House today.

The attitude of the railroads does not warrant the assumption that they are going to the White House to submit to the presidential policy. On the contrary, all the acts of the railroads up to date have been in direct opposition to the plans of the administration and to its announced ideas respecting the regulating of rates and railroads.

The question of the eastern railroads and the raising of rates in the east is now clearly up to the president. It is his action that is being looked for and it is his views which are of special interest at this time. The attorney general has stated frankly what he can do and what his limitations are.

Evidence in Plenty.

Plenty of evidence was forthcoming in the case of the western railroads. The shippers were alert in that instance. So far no complaint has been made in such direct terms as to warrant the immediate action of the attorney general. It is not likely in fact that he will act at all until he meets the president on Monday.

This much can be said, and it is said on the highest authority. The attorney general will assume that there is nothing the matter with the raise in the eastern rates unless some one complains to him and shows good reason for the complaint.

It is regarded as extremely remarkable at the department of justice that considering all the outcry against acts of the eastern railroads there is as yet no complaint filed against them.

The attorney general has stated explicitly that he could not proceed against the eastern railroad people without evidence, and also stated that the cases of the western and eastern railroads are very urgent. In fact, he says that the western railroad case is unique.

Apathy in Way.

The apparent apathy of the shippers affected by the eastern railroads is a phenomenon unexplainable by the department of justice. It is certain that if there be no evidence to sustain the suspicion of conspiracy or joint action in restraint of trade, the attorney general cannot file a petition for injunction.

There is only one other way of proceeding against the eastern railroads. The president can order the interstate commerce commission to consider specific cases in which tariffs have been raised to test their fairness. This is a slow process which will continue so until the new railroad bill goes into effect with its commerce court. That court was intended to do away with the law's delays.

MADRIZ ARMY COMPLETELY CRUSHED

The Insurgents With a Tolling Victory—100 Killed, 400 Are Wounded.

Bluefields, June 4.—The Madriz army has been crushingly defeated in its last stand by General Mena, insurgent commander at Rama, according to advices received here today. General Chacarraria commander of the regular army at Rama has been routed and the remnants of his column are fleeing after the scattered Madriz forces that attacked this city. It is reported that more than 100 were killed and 400 hurt.

Reports received today declare that Gen. Chacarraria can not escape, having headed for a trap when he abandoned the siege of Rama. Mena ordered that he be surrounded and himself directed the pursuit.

The defeat of the Madriz army at Bluefields directly resulted in the Rama insurgent victory. General Chamorro, commander of the ill-fated Managua expedition, being detailed to succor Mena with 600 men from Bluefields. On the arrival of reinforcements, the Rama chief demanded the surrender of Chacarraria within 12 hours.

The latter replied with an attack on a hill commanding Rama. In the three hours battle that followed the fighting was furious, ending in the flight of the regulars.

Uncle Sam Makes Move.

Washington, June 2.—The state department late this afternoon, aroused over the capture of W. T. Pittman of Boston by the Madriz forces while fighting with Estrada's troops, sent the following dispatch to the American consul at Managua:

"There is a newspaper report from San Juan Del Sur that W. T. Pittman, an American citizen, who is alleged to have laid mines while operating with Estrada's forces, has been made prisoner by the Madriz troops, and is about to be tried by court martial today."

"It is unnecessary to point out that this government will jealously scrutinize the treatment accorded him which must be humane and regular. You will immediately make inquiries and report to the department."

A copy of the cablegram was sent to United States consul Moffat at Bluefields and to Commander Gilmer of the United States steamship Paducah.

"O. HENRY" WELL KNOWN WRITER IS DEAD

Began Career in Texas and Won a Wide Reputation—Short Story Writer.

New York, June 5.—William Sidney Porter, known best under his pen name of "O. Henry," as the writer of short stories, died today at Polytechnic hospital. He underwent an operation last Friday afternoon and never rallied. The nature of his ailment was not made known.

Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was telegraphed, but did not arrive here until after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Greensboro, N. C., forty-six years ago and began his journalistic career on the Houston Post. Before that he had been cowboy, sheep herder and druggist and active traveler. The general public new little of his private life, for he shunned interviewers and was content to be known merely through his writings as "O. Henry."

His breezy paragraphs penned in Texas, first drew attention to the young writer several years ago, when he launched forth with his "Day Stories" for a New York daily paper and was recognized as a writer of ability. Magazine stories followed and his fame was assured. It was only two years ago, however, that any but his closest friends knew his real name. Then he reluctantly consented to have his photograph printed with a brief biographical sketch.

Taft's Thrift Defense Tardy.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Defense of the tariff bill by the regular republicans of the senate and house has come too late to get the attention of the people. The defense should have been begun as soon as prices began to be increased after the passage of the bill. Men like Payne and Fordney have made very fine arguments in support of the law, and have demonstrated that many prices have been raised without any warrant from the tariff, but these long demonstrations will not reach the people. The people believe that the tariff law is the cause of high prices, and even if they are deceived they are likely to give expression to their feelings when they vote next November.

GUESTS APPRECIATE BEAUTIFUL ENTERTAINMENT IN ADA HOMES.

BEST SESSION EVER HELD

Report of Committee on Resolutions for Courtesies Extended by Ada.

The Woman's Home Mission Conference which has been in session since Thursday evening, closed this morning.

"It was a large and intelligent body of christian women from over the state who attended this meeting. One hundred twenty-three delegates and visitors were entertained in homes of our city. The president, Mrs. R. M. Campbell, stated that this had been the most successful conference in every way they had ever had and that they never received such a hearty welcome from any city, nor had been so beautifully entertained as by the people of Ada; in fact, that seemed to be the sentiment of all the delegates and visitors.

Harmony appeared to pervade through all the business sessions. Many hostesses were heard to say they had fallen so much in love with their guests they were sorry to see them leave.

The majority of them left this morning, a few remained until the afternoon trains.

The following report was read at the close of the morning session:

"We, your committee on Resolutions submit the following:

1. Resolved that we offer thanks giving to our Heavenly Father for the privilege of meeting together again in this the 19th session of the Annual Conference of the W. H. M. S. which we believe has been the most successful meeting ever held.

2. That we express our gratitude and appreciation to the Methodist ladies of Ada and our hostesses for their cordiality and kind hospitality.

3. That we tender our thanks to the Press and all others who have contributed to the interest of our work.

4. That we have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful recitations and music given during our various sessions by the choir and others.

5. That we thank the ministers, presiding elders, and other brethren for their kindly interest and services and pray God's richest blessings may ever be on this church and people.

6. That we are grateful to the ladies of the H. M. S. and Philathen class for the beautiful luncheon served at the noon hour, also thank the little pages, Misses Leona Chauncey, Clemmie Barringer, Will Tom Truett for their efficient service and the president of the state bank for the delicious basket of peaches.

7. That we are grateful to have had the efficient and beautiful services rendered to the conference by Miss Mabel Head and Mrs. W. H. Johnson.

DUEL WITH KNIVES IN ARKANSAS RIVER.

Muskogee, Okla., June 5.—Frank Sterling, was fatally stabbed by Henry Draper, this afternoon. The two men are ferry boatmen and armed with knives fought a duel in the middle of the Arkansas river in the presence of a big Sunday crowd which gather at Hyde Park on the river banks. Leaving his opponent lying in the boat Draper escaped in a skiff and has not yet been apprehended. The cause of the fight is unknown. Draper cut a large gash in Sterling's abdomen, severing the internal organs.

Shorty Brownfield, Farmer Boy Living Near Ada Shot and Killed by "Unloaded Gun."

Saturday about one o'clock in the afternoon Shorty Brownfield, who lived on a farm seven miles east of here was accidentally shot and killed by his little six year old brother. The two brothers, aged sixteen and six respectively were hoeing cotton and it seems had a gun in the field with them. They had been working with the gun, having snapped it two or three times and, as it failed to report, thought it was unloaded. The younger boy playfully said to his brother, "If you don't show me how to work this gun I am going to shoot you," and pointing it at his brother's head pulled the trigger. The gun fired, the older boy fell fatally wounded with a gunshot wound over his left eye. The poor boy survived only a short time dying Sunday morning. And thus another life is bought with the price of an unloaded gun.

THINGS THAT ARE SUPREME

REV. RANDOLPH COOK OF ENID DELIVERS INSPIRING BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

ADVICE TO THE GRADUATES

Deals With Things That Should Be Supreme in Every Life.

It was truly a magnificent congregation which filled the Methodist church to overflowing yesterday morning and which was soon to hear a magnificent sermon pregnant with truth and inspiration. The baccalaureate sermon which not only was deeply impressive to the E. C. N. seniors, but to all who had the opportunity of hearing it was delivered by the Rev. Randolph Cook of Enid. Mr. Cook spoke on the topic, "Some Things That Are Supreme."

After congratulating the audience and the school management on the successful school year just closing, Mr. Cook spoke in part as follows:

"The universe is God's great universe for the development of character. Here we find a multitude of teachers, speaking to us in all the voices of earth and air, nature and grace, Moses and the prophets, Jesus and the apostles, and all the men who have illuminated the world by their thought and enriched it by their example."

"The great problem in every age," said the speaker, "with every cause, is the problem of the man: Diogenes went through the streets of his city, with lantern in hand, looking for a man. That process is being repeated everywhere today. This is true in the church, business and in all walks of life. Because it is the supreme business of the schools to produce men and women of high character, do we consider them today. First of all I wish to emphasize

1. A cultivated mind the Supreme force in Life.

The things that make a man great are his thoughts. They are the dominating, determining, controlling thing about a man. His clothes may be laid off at any time, his manners are often assumed, the tissues of the body are regularly changed, but the thing that abides is thought. It survives all, and the thing we weave out of them is immortal. This is true of man, nations, ages, and eras. It is also true of Deity.

"Knowledge is power," Archimedes lever is not as great as his mind. The pyramids are just regarded as one of the wonders of the world, but the mind that conceived them is greater than they. Caesar ruled the world, and Alexander sighed for more worlds to conquer, but the modern cylinder press has outdone them both. Back of Luther, Cromwell, Washington and Lincoln were ideas—a mighty invisible force—that were slowly undermining falsehood.

I trust, young people, that your education has not taken you into a beautiful room, filled with the choicest productions of art, or the highest works of genius, but rather that it has taken you to the mountain peak of opportunity.

2. Obedience to Law the Supreme Condition.

Obedience to law is the real condition of success in life. (1) In the realm of intellect, (2) in morals, and (3) in the realm of religion. If you keep the law, the law will keep you.

3. Love for Work the Supreme Motive.

Love is not only the law of religion, it is the law of civilization. The immortal saviours of society have been a few brave leaders who saw that love and hate were at the zenith and nadir of human development. Love is the great dynamo of life. It is a nightingale, and sings in the darkness. Disappointments come, but don't give up; life's battles are won by inspiration and not by fear. What the spring is to the watch, what the fountain is to the stream, what the soul is to the body, so is love to the life of man.

4. Character the Supreme Attainment.

Men are asking today, not so much, "From what school does a man come?" but "How much of a man is he?"

"It is well to have good schools, fine libraries, laboratories, and that the graduates come out KNOWING something, but it is infinitely better that they come out being something."

"Everything in life is according to a hidden pattern, and man too must have his ideal of life."

After emphasizing these various points, the speaker closed by saying: "Young people I bid you go forward. Welcome all that comes to you. The clouds will be your helpers. If you only will it so. Look to the future, and push on modestly, and never boasting, fearing neither time, nor space, ocean or desert, nor any possible toll or sorrow, nor death. Life's

Dear Madam

You appreciate how uncomfortable the kitchen is these warm days? It will be worse as you advance further in the summer. Why not use electricity and be cool? You can cook, bake, operate your sewing machine, wash and iron. In fact, there is nothing which cannot be accomplished with electricity that is accomplished by either gas or an ordinary range. It is odorless, no heat, no smoke, simply press the button and we do the rest.

"I wish"—he sighed, gazing ardently into his beloved one's eyes—"I wish I were a star."
"I would rather," she replied dreamily, "that you were a comet."
His heart beat tumultuously against his ribs, his eyes glowed.
"And why?" he asked tenderly, taking her unresisting little hand within his own. "Why?" he repeated imperiously.
"Because," she answered, with a brooding earnestness that fell freezing upon his soul, "then you would come round only once in every fifteen years!"

Modern Necessities.

One of the reasons why it is expensive to live today is that people buy wholly unnecessary things. The fact is illustrated by a conversation which took place in a "novelty shop." A reporter went in to look round. A shiny object attracted his attention. He inquired its use.
"Those are gilded pinners," said the clerk. "They are used to pick up letters you have put on the letter scales."

DR. SEARS REACHES N. Y.

And Talks for the Press—Makes Known His Plan of Studying for Benefit Ada Normal.

New York, June 4—Oklahoma has appointed an envoy to the third international congress of home education, which meets at Brussels in the latter part of August. The delegate got this far Friday night. He is Dr. Rolla G. Sears and he is professor of history in the State Normal school at Ada.

"I took my degree at the University of Wisconsin in eleven languages," said the Oklahoma professor. "I am quite familiar with Hebrew, Aramaic and Sanskrit, and I think I could hold my own in conversation in any of the eleven I am to be joined by Professor F. L. Black, of the state preparatory school at Tonkawa, and we expect to do Europe from top to bottom between now and the early part of September."

We shall go as far as Constantinople and even to Athens," continued Dr. Sears. "Then we shall visit the Passion Play at Oberammergau. I have an extended leave of absence and shall tour Europe in the interests of the study of history. In fact I expect to see everything there is to be seen in Europe and shall go to Rome and Berlin and everywhere."

Here Dr. Sears made an announcement which may appeal strongly to our educators at Columbia or Harvard or Yale who may contemplate tours similar to his.

"I have a new plan," said Dr. Sears. "In one of my grips I carry the text books we use. I promise to study each book I visit by the aid of the text book so as to get knowledge first hand as it were, and complete for the benefit of the normal school."

Failure Brings $10,000 Suit.

Tulsa, Okla., June 5—Asking for judgment in the sum of $10,125 alleged to be due upon a promissory note executed last November to the Merchants and Planters Insurance company, now a defunct concern, A. B. Hark, receiver of the company, has filed suit in the District court against Charles Haley, secretary of the Tulsa Limestone Ballast company, of which Frank Chesley, millionaire oil operator, is president. Twenty-five shares, of the par value of $25 each, is named as the security for the note on which a lien is asked by the plaintiff.

AEROPLANE DROPS BOMBS ON FORTS

Plan to Test the Utility of Air Ships in Modern Warfare.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 5—Tests of the utility of the aeroplane in warfare will be made at the military encampment of United States troops and the National guard of several southern states at Chickamauga Park this summer.

The government has closed a contract with Charles K. Hamilton to conduct the most extensive practical experiments in aeronautical reconnaissance and bombardment ever attempted. In addition to Hamilton's machine, which is a duplicate of the machine, which Glenn H. Curtiss flew from Albany to New York, there will be present at the maneuvers the Wright biplane, owned by the government, and the dirigible balloon sold to the war department by Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin.

In executing the work laid out for him Hamilton will carry aloft from 200 to 300 pounds of highly explosive nitroglycerin bombs. Racing at a speed varying from forty-five to fifty miles an hour, he will release this deadly cargo at a height of a quarter of a mile above the earth, raining it down upon targets in the two mile square area below in seventy-five installments. The targets underneath will consist of dummy fortifications, battalions, arsenals, bridges, trains and troops.

DATES FOR SUMMER

NORMALS ANNOUNCED

Guthrie, Okla., June 4—The state department of education announces the summer institute dates for teachers. The opportunities offered teachers for summer school work in Oklahoma this summer will, perhaps, be unequalled by any other state in the union, and it will not be necessary for Oklahoma public school teachers to go to other states to seek educational advantages. The institutes fall into three periods, arranged as follows: First period, May 30 to June 24, second period, July 4 to July 20, third period, August 1 to August 26.

The state institutes will all begin the first period and in these institutes work will be offered leading to first, second and third grade county certificates and also the higher work leading to state grammar school and high school certificates. This arrangement offers an incentive to a teacher holding a valid certificate to continue to take summer institute work in order to secure the higher and more valuable forms of certificates. State institutes will be conducted at each of the following higher institutions of learning: State University at Norman, A and M college, Stillwater, Central normal, Alva, Southwestern normal, Weatherford, Northwestern normal, Tahlequah, Eastern normal, Ada, Southeastern normal, Durant, Eastern university preparatory school, Claremore, and the colored A and M university at Langston.

THE CONFIDENCE OF YOUTH

New York Judge Tells How, When a Boy, He Wanted Whitelaw Reid's Job.

It isn't often that a man will tell a story the point of which is buried in his own flesh. But Judge William Hornblow is responsible for this yarn of his youth. He even declared that he profited by the experience, for he has been less cheery ever since. "I had determined to enter the profession of journalism," said he, according to the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star, "and I could hardly wait to say good-by to the members of my graduating class before hurrying to New York. The morning I arrived I sent down for all the papers and spent the day in my hotel room, reading them over thoroughly. I wanted to decide, you see, which one I should favor with my services. Finally I decided on the Tribune, then edited by Whitelaw Reid, who is now its principal owner. That night I dressed in my best and strolled down to the editorial rooms."

"It isn't always easy to get in to see a city editor, but it may be that my swelling chest impressed the door boy. I was ushered in and sat down to tell the autocrat what I desired. He smiled upon me—a smile, as I later became aware full of guile and venom. He said that he had no place vacant on his staff. Encouraged by that fatal grin I gave him a more thorough insight into my capacity, and finally suggested that as the Tribune could not afford to miss such a chance, he might make a place for me. 'That is,' said he, 'discharge some one to make room for you.' I modestly admitted that, translated into cruel words, that is what I meant. 'But you wouldn't want to be a reporter,' said he. 'You would prefer to write our editorials, no doubt?' A vision of the glory that awaited me made my head swim. But I kept a cold and unmoved countenance as I assured him that he was correct. 'You'll have to give me a week or so to make the arrangements,' said he, turning the deceitful brilliance of his smile upon me. 'You see, before I hire you I shall fire Whitelaw Reid.'"

CARVED OUT HIGH POSITION

Wonderful Rise of Sir Ernest Cassel From Obscurity to Companion of Monarchs.

Sir Ernest Cassel, one of King Edward's hosts at Biarritz, has had a career full of romance, the romance of the self-made man. It seems like a fairy tale that the unknown lad of the '70s should now be the friend and counsellor of the king of England and the German emperor.

It is rumored that he is one of the six men who move in the mysterious background of the government of England, says the Gentlewoman. He has been the builder of his own fortune. Money has grown under his hands, and banks and railways have made his vast riches.

One of the most dramatic moments in his career was a Boer war incident. The British government stood in need of a big sum at short notice. It was obtained by Sir Ernest in three hours. Luck seems not to attend him on the turf, although he once won the Two Thousand.

Much has been written on Brook house, his Park Lane residence, but there has been scant mention of the Turkish baths which occupy part of the ground floor, nor of the marvelous range of kitchens. There are six of these, with marble floors and walls, and they include pastry kitchens, grilling, roasting and boiling kitchens, a vegetable kitchen and a room for fruit and flowers.

Playing for Safety.

"Why don't you move up the aisle?" roared the incensed conductor on the Cedar line. "Yes, I mean you! There's lots of vacant room between you and the lady."

The little man with the sandy mustache unsteadily shook his head. "All the room there's there will shatter there," he called back rather thickly. "I know when I'm well off, besh your life."

"Nothing's going to hurt you," cried the conductor.

"Nothing's going to hurt me," the little man repeated. "Whash you call those four hatpins?" And he pointed with an unsteady finger at the woman's hat.

Of course there were only two pins, but they were long enough to scare a much braver man—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pennsylvania Elk Herd.

Former Congressman Alexander Bittmyer of Washingtonville, Montour county, Pa., since the successful wintering over of his herd of elks, declares that he now has the largest and finest herd of elks anywhere in captivity.

He has 20 in all, headed by one of the finest young bulls that ever stalked a preserve. The young fellow has been named Jumbo, in honor of the old one that was made famous when he was taken to Philadelphia during the Elks convention.

Watch Crystals of Celluloid.

Celluloid watch crystals have appeared and are guaranteed not to break like those of glass. The celluloid crystals are not favored by dealers in the higher grades of watches, but are placed on cheap timepieces.

Of late the German manufacturers have been employing these crystals. They cost a little more than glass, but are liked because of their durability. Scientific American.

THE FRUIT CROP LARGEST EVER RAISED IN OKLAHOMA

Hobart, Ok., June 4—The 1910 peach, plum and apple crops in Oklahoma will be the largest ever raised, says R. L. Peebly, president of the Oklahoma Fruit Growers' Association, after he had received reports from various sections of the state.

The peach crop will be heavy in nearly all portions of Oklahoma this year, and if reports are true, will be the largest ever raised in this state. Reports from the Northern and Eastern states indicate a poor fruit crop. The states of Texas and Georgia will have bumper crops in 1910.

"We have reports from every county, and the indications are that the peach, plum and apple crops will be better this year than ever before, but the pear crop will be light," said President Peebly. "We believe the prices will be good this year, because only three states, Oklahoma, Georgia and Texas, will have a large fruit output. The crops in the eastern part of Oklahoma will be heavy except in the low land but in nearly every section the reports indicate good returns. The western part does not raise a large crop on account of the fact that it is a new country. The new trees in this country are now beginning to bear fruit, and this is one reason why the fruit crops will be heavy this year."

Wee's Confidential Way.

Little Wee had been brought up to be polite, and not to interrupt when there was company unless it was very important. He always remembered this and kept very quiet. One day there were visitors who talked and stayed and stayed, until poor little Wee was tired. He wished them to go, but not for anything would he let them see this.

All of a sudden he thought of a nice plan that his mother and father knew when he was too little to spell and they did not want to hurt his feelings. So in a little pause in the ladies' talk, Wee said, in the prettiest way: "Mother, please can't we be alone?" And all the visitors laughed and kissed him goodbye, and gave him his good mother all to himself—Youth's Companion.

The Hat and Royalty.

The hat plays a considerable part in civilization as a sign and a symbol, quite apart from its purpose as a shelter against the weather. In the Mother of Parliaments, the etiquette regarding it is so elaborate that new members frequently find themselves involved in difficulties. There are two peers who to this day possess the right of remaining covered: the presence of royalty, if they care to exercise it. And the king always puts on his field marshal's hat before he reads the speech to the assembled lords and commons—London Chronicle.

SENATOR GORE WANTS RELIEF FUND FOR INDIANS

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Senator Gore, in a bill introduced in the Senate, asks for an appropriation of $750,000 for the relief of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, this sum to reimburse the nations for expenses incurred by them in connection with the work of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship court, especially the Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish fee.

The Lawton senator says that the treaties with the Indians provide that the allotment and enrollment process should be accomplished without cost to the tribes.

PROTECTION ASSURED AMERICAN PRISONER

MAN WHO SET MINES FOR INSURGENTS WILL BE TREATED FAIRLY.

ESTRADA WELL SATISFIED

Provisional Leader Well Pleased With United States Actions.

Washington, June 6.—Dr. Madriz, head of the de facto government of Nicaragua, will see to it that William P. Pittman, the young American who was captured while aiding the Estrada forces at Bluefields, is given protection and every right to which he is entitled. There will be no repetition of the summary justice practiced by Gen. Zelaya on the two Americans, Leonard Groce and Leroy Cannon, and the Managua authorities realize that they will be held strictly accountable to the United States for their treatment of the American prisoner.

This is the net outcome of Secretary Knox's prompt action looking to protect Pittman as soon as it was reported that he had fallen into the hands of the Madriz troops.

The authorities at Managua have informed state department through the American consulate there that a court martial for Pittman has not been ordered or thought of, and that he will be given fair treatment.

Fearing that Pittman may be unjustly dealt with, letters from Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Mrs. Pittman of Boston, mother of the young American have been sent to Secretary Knox. The state department feels sure that ample protection will now be accorded.

Estrada Well Satisfied.
Bluefields, Nicaragua, June 5.—Gen. Estrada, the leader of the provisional government, is well satisfied with the success which attended his engagement against Madriz forces under Generals Lara and Godey and has repeated the offer which he made last March to Madriz looking to the establishment of peace.

The conditions of Gen. Estrada's proposals provide for the friendly mediation of the United States, that country to designate the Nicaraguan whom it considers most fit to occupy the Presidency provisionally, neither Dr. Madriz nor Gen. Estrada being eligible, the provisional president to

convoke elections for a constitutional president; the Nicaraguan government to recognize the revolutionary debt, the validity of its acts and to arrange for pensioning its disabled soldiers; certain monopolies and concessions to be abolished.

These conditions Madriz has already refused to accept on the occasion when they were first offered, while expressing the fullest confidence in the government of the United States, but in view of his latest reverses, the difficult conditions under which his military forces have been compelled to assume the aggressive, the lack of supplies and the dilapidated conditions of his soldiers through lack of food, severe marches and bad sanitary conditions, it is expected by the provisional leaders that he will now give the proposals more serious consideration.

The conditions at Bluefields are giving the diplomatic representatives considerable concern, as all business has been interrupted and there are many wounded and helpless people to be taken care of.

Resolution Passed to Make Care of Teeth Compulsory in Public Schools.

Open One Million Acres Arid Land.
Washington, June 4.—The interior department has designated under the enlarged homestead act approximately 1,000,000 acres of land in Wyoming not susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply. In Wyoming up to the present time the area of land so designated totals 14,500,000 acres.

The department also has designated approximately 15,000 acres of land in New Mexico under the same act, making the total so designated in that territory approximately 15,800,000 acres.

COUNTERFIT MONEY IN MISSOURI PEN

Had Been in Operation Over Twenty Years and Discovered by Government Officers.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 5.—A fully equipped counterfeiting plant in operation at the state penitentiary at Jefferson City for twenty years was raided today by government inspector Edward J. McHugh.

Molds, fire pots, spurious coins and other paraphernalia were confiscated and two prisoners arrested. Both confessed having made spurious half dollars, quarters and 5c pieces.

The plant, Inspector McHugh declares, has been in the penitentiary for twenty years and has been handed down from prisoner to prisoner. The men arrested are a five-year man from Kansas City and another long-term prisoner from there.

A quarrel between four prisoners occupying the same cell regarding the division of the spoils was responsible for the raid.

The government was applied for warrants charging the prisoners with counterfeiting.

Gov. Hadley announced today that he will pardon both men in October when the federal court convenes.

Three molds used by the counterfeiters, were found in the cell occupied by Jaynes and Vail. Two sets of these were for 50c pieces, one for 25c and the other for 5c pieces. A small plaster of paris furnace used for heating the metal was dug from under the cell floor. This furnace was constructed to permit a receptacle four inches square setting in the center of it. Charcoal was used for fuel.

INDIAN JAILED ON GRAVE CHARGE

Harrison Porter who lives about three miles south of town was arrested in Ada this morning on a charge of criminally assaulting his thirteen years old step daughter over six months ago. He was taken before Justice Brown and was committed to jail without bond.

Porter, it is alleged, has the reputation of being a bad Indian, having served a term in the penitentiary for murder.

W. B. Adair and Chas. Brody made the arrest this morning with out any difficulty.

When the state of Oklahoma entered the union it became the heir of Oklahoma territory. In other words, it inherited all the collected revenues and all the unpaid debts of the old territorial government. It inherited in cash collected for current expenses three hundred and fifty-seven thousand dollars. It inherited in territorial debts one million two hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars. It also inherited a debt of seventy thousand dollars in interest on the unpaid territorial debt.

Subsequent to the collected revenue from the unpaid debts and you have a difference of nine hundred and forty-one thousand dollars. Such is the legacy bequeathed by a republican territory to a democratic state.

The monthly report of Milas Laster, state insurance commissioner, for the month of May, shows that the amount of money collected from the insurance companies by the insurance department for the month was $4,114.05. This increases the amount collected for the year since January 1st to $175,481.05. This is a remarkable showing for this department, as well as a remarkable showing for democratic administration. The total amount collected for the year 1906—the last full year of territorial government—was only $21,628.32. The total amount collected by this department for the four years immediately prior to statehood was $75,595.07. Since statehood there has been collected $424,192.57. The amount already collected for the present year exceeds the total amount collected for the four years immediately prior to statehood by more than $100,000.

In the year 1909 the cost of state government in Kansas was $3,669,537. In Oklahoma for the same year the cost of state government was $2,160,226.

In that year the common people of Kansas paid in direct taxes $2,662,874. The corporations and franchisees paid $1,066,826.

In the same mentioned year the common people of Oklahoma paid in direct taxes $730,000. The corporations and franchisees paid $1,430,226.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Kansas, the common people paid 75 cents. The corporations and franchisees paid only 25 cents.

Of every dollar raised by direct taxation in Oklahoma, the common people paid only 33 cents. The corporations and franchisees paid 67 cents.

In Kansas the laws are dictated in the making by the Santa Fe and other railroads. In Oklahoma the laws are made for the whole people.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS WRECK HUNDRED HOUSES

Santiago, Cuba, Is Panic Stricken. Buildings Shake and Fall With Great Destruction.

New Orleans, La., June 5.—A cablegram received by the Texas News Service Bureau here yesterday from Havana, Cuba, gives information that forty people are known to be injured and one hundred houses wrecked and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed as the result of an earthquake at Santiago early today. While details are meager because of incomplete communications with the stricken city no loss of life is reported.

The first shock created a panic and the people rushed pell-mell into the streets, only to be caught, many of them, under falling walls and crumbling chimneys when succeeding shocks wrought destruction.

Santiago is a city on the southern coast of the island of Cuba and has 45,000 inhabitants. This vicinity was the scene of the famous charge of the Rough Riders and the Tenth Infantry up San Juan Hill during the Spanish-American war. The Bay of Santiago was sunk in an attempt to bottle up the Spanish fleet which was followed by Schley's notable victory when the Spanish vessels emerged.

UNCLE SAM MAY PUT ON BARGAIN SALE IN PANAMA

New York, June 4.—Possibly in time for this summer's year, possibly not until straw hat weather is here, or quite over for the season, the greatest bargain sale in Panama ever held is in prospect, and Uncle Sam will be the auctioneer.

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department, Collector Loeb and United States District Attorney Wise talked over the recent seizure of Panama hats today, and decided that proceedings should be taken in the federal courts for the forfeiture and condemnation. The hats, invoiced as being valued at $65,000, were said to be worth $112,000 and the added would be worth $160,000. Goods seized in this way are sold at auction.

SUNDAY SERVICES CONDUCTED BY LADIES

MISS HEAD AND MRS. JOHNSON ADDRESS LARGE AUDIENCES.

Officers Elected This Morning—Mangum Will Entertain Next Conference.

Miss Head who is general secretary of the W. H. M. S. of the Southern Methodist church, held the large audiences who heard her speak at the Methodist church Sunday almost spellbound. She is thoroughly informed along all lines of Home Mission work and is a woman of charming personality.

At the Sunday school hour she talked to the children, leaving with them, and with the older ones as well, pictures of those in our home land who are not fortunate in having Sunday schools near enough to attend, or who live in the crowded cities with wicked parents who will not allow them to attend the christian schools and churches; those who live in the mountains and have never seen a Bible. Sending the gospel to these is a part of the Home Mission work.

At 3 o'clock she addressed the young people on their opportunities and their being the hope and the inspiration of the church.

Sunday evening the choir rendered a beautiful musical program.

Mrs. W. H. Johnson of Dallas, who is superintendent and financial agent of the Mission Rescue Home in Dallas for friendless girls, spoke about the good work and great need of the home. Mrs. Johnson is the founder of the home, and during the 17 years she has been there, 1200 girls have been saved. She edits a very new and largely circulated paper, "The King's Messenger," which in a small measure helps defray expenses of the home. A free will offering of $53 was given Mrs. Johnson for the building fund. They are planning for a church needed building to accommodate many who might enter but for lack of room for accommodations.

Miss Head's address was replete with information on the work being accomplished and needs yet to be met by the organized Home Mission workers. One of the main features stressed was that the christians of the United States should meet the masses of foreigners coming into our country with the gospel of Christ and lend protection to the young people. The Home Mission society already has missionaries in three of our largest ports.

The following officers were elected by the conference this morning for the ensuing year:

- President, Mrs. R. M. Campbell.
1st Vice President, Mrs. Cassie Shown, Mangum.
2nd Vice President, Mrs. W. B. Gill, Hugo.
3rd Vice President, Mrs. S. F. Goddard, Holdenville.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Whittington, Ardmore.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. C. Fowler, Henrietta.
Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Mercer, McAlester.

Pressing invitations were sent from Mangum, Pauls Valley and Lawton to the conference to meet with them next year.

Mangum was the chosen place of meeting.

OLD CORN DOCTOR ROBBED

CARRIED $7,000 ON PERSON

Snyder, Okla., June 4.—M. C. Hancock, formerly of this place, has been arrested at Moffat, Col., and returned to Snyder to face a charge of robbing Louis Albright, an eccentric old corn doctor of $7,000 on February 23, 1909. Albright was afraid of banks and carried the money in a leather belt on his person. It is claimed that Hancock knocked Albright in the head and left him for dead in an alley way. Hancock ran a hotel in Snyder. Immediately after the robbery he sold out and moved to Moffat, where it is alleged he started a bank with the stolen money. Hancock has been indicted by the grand jury.

EGYPTIAN COMMITTEE SAY TEDDY INSULTED THE WORLD

Geneva, Switzerland, June 4.—The Young Egyptian committee today issued a violent protest against the sentiments expressed by Theodore Roosevelt in his speech at the Guild hall in London, in which he expressed the opinion that Great Britain should show a firmer hand in Egypt. The committee declares that the speech was an insult not only to Europe, but to the whole civilized world.

RAILROAD RATES UP TO TAFT

The President Will Fight It Out With Railroad Representatives Today.

Washington, June 6.—The government and the railroads are resting on their arms pending the preliminary battle to be waged between President Taft and the presidents and attorneys of railroads at the White House today.

The attitude of the railroads does not warrant the assumption that they are going to the White House to submit to the presidential policy. On the contrary, all the acts of the railroads up to date have been in direct opposition to the plans of the administration and to its announced ideas respecting the regulating of rates and railroads.

The question of the eastern railroads and the raising of rates in the east is now clearly up to the president. It is his action that is being looked for and it is his views which are of special interest at this time. The attorney general has stated frankly what he can do and what his limitations are.

Evidence in Plenty.

Plenty of evidence was forthcoming in the case of the western railroads. The shippers were alert in that instance. So far no complaint has been made in such direct terms as to warrant the immediate action of the attorney general. It is not likely in fact that he will act at all until he meets the president on Monday.

This much can be said, and it is said on the highest authority. The attorney general will assume that there is nothing the matter with the raise in the eastern rates unless some one complains to him and shows good reason for the complaint.

It is regarded as extremely remarkable at the department of justice that considering all the outcry against acts of the eastern railroads there is as yet no complaint filed against them.

The attorney general has stated explicitly that he could not proceed against the eastern railroad people without evidence, and also stated that the cases of the western and eastern railroads are very urgent. In fact, he says that the western railroad case is unique.

Apathy in Way.

The apparent apathy of the shippers affected by the eastern railroads is a phenomenon unexplainable by the department of justice. It is certain that if there be no evidence to sustain the suspicion of conspiracy or joint action in restraint of trade, the attorney general cannot file a petition for injunction.

There is only one other way of proceeding against the eastern railroads. The president can order the interstate commerce commission to consider specific cases in which tariffs have been raised to test their fairness. This is a slow process which will continue so until the new railroad bill goes into effect with its commerce court. That court was intended to do away with the law's delays.

MADRIZ ARMY COMPLETELY CRUSHED

The Insurgents With a Telling Victory—100 Killed, 400 Are Wounded.

Bluefields, June 4.—The Madriz army has been crushingly defeated in its last stand by General Mena, insurgent commander at Rama, according to advices received here today. General Chacarraria commander of the regular army at Rama has been routed and the remnants of his column are fleeing after the scattered Madriz forces that attacked this city. It is reported that more than 100 were killed and 400 hurt.

Reports received today declare that Gen. Chacarraria can not escape, having headed for a trap when he abandoned the siege of Rama. Mena ordered that he be surrounded and himself directed the pursuit.

The defeat of the Madriz army at Bluefields directly resulted in the Rama insurgent victory. General Chamorro, commander of the ill-fated Managua expedition, being detailed to succor Mena with 600 men from Bluefields. On the arrival of reinforcements, the Rama chief demanded the surrender of Chacarraria within 12 hours.

The latter replied with an attack on a hill commanding Rama. In the three hours battle that followed the fighting was furious, ending in the flight of the regulars.

Uncle Sam Makes Move.

Washington, June 2.—The state department late this afternoon, aroused over the capture of W. T. Pittman of Boston by the Madriz forces while fighting with Estrada's troops, sent the following dispatch to the American consul at Managua:

"There is a newspaper report from San Juan Del Sur that W. T. Pittman, an American citizen, who is alleged to have laid mines while operating with Estrada's forces, has been made prisoner by the Madriz troops and is about to be tried by court martial today.

"It is unnecessary to point out that this government will jealously scrutinize the treatment accorded him which must be humane and regular. You will immediately make inquiries and report to the department."

A copy of the cablegram was sent to United States consul Moffat at Bluefields and to Commander Gilmer of the United States steamship Paducah.

"O. HENRY" WELL KNOWN WRITER IS DEAD

Began Career in Texas and Won a Wide Reputation—Short Story Writer.

New York, June 5.—William Sidney Porter, known best under his pen name of "O. Henry," as the writer of short stories, died today at Polytechnic hospital. He underwent an operation last Friday afternoon and never rallied. The nature of his ailment was not made known.

Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was telegraphed, but did not arrive here until after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Greensboro, N. C., forty-six years ago and began his journalistic career on the Houston Post. Before that he had been cowboy, sheep herder and druggist and active traveler. The general public knew little of his private life, for he shunned interviewers and was content to be known merely through his writings as "O. Henry."

His breezy paragraphs penned in Texas, first drew attention to the young writer several years ago, when he launched forth with his "Day Stories" for a New York daily paper and was recognized as a writer of ability. Magazine stories followed and his fame was assured. It was only two years ago, however, that any but his closest friends knew his real name. Then he reluctantly consented to have his photograph printed with a brief biographical sketch.

Taft's Tariff Defense Tardy.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Defense of the tariff bill by the regular republicans of the senate and house has come too late to get the attention of the people. The defense should have been begun as soon as prices began to be increased after the passage of the bill. Men like Payne and Forney have made very fine arguments in support of the law, and have demonstrated that many prices have been raised without any warrant from the tariff, but these long demonstrations will not reach the people. The people believe that the tariff law is the cause of high prices, and even if they are deceived they are likely to give expression to their feelings when they vote next November.

GUESTS APPRECIATE BEAUTIFUL
ENTERTAINMENT IN ADA
HOMES.

BEST SESSION EVER HELD

Report of Committee on Resolutions
for Courtesy Extended by Ada.

The Woman's Home Mission Conference which has been in session
since Thursday evening, closed this morning.

It was a large and intelligent body
of christian women from over the state who attended this meeting. One hundred twenty-three delegates and
visitors were entertained in homes
of our city. The president, Mrs. R. M.
Campbell, stated that this had been
the most successful conference in every way they had ever had and
that they never received such a heartily welcome from any city, nor
had been so beautifully entertained as
by the people of Ada. In fact, that seemed to be the sentiment of all the delegates and visitors.

Harmony appeared to pervade
through all the business sessions.
Many hostesses were heard to say
they had fallen so much in love with
their guests they were sorry to see
them leave.

The majority of them left this morning, a few remained until the afternoon trains.

The following report was read at
the close of the morning session:

"We, your committee on Resolutions submit the following:

1. Resolved that we offer thanks giving to our Heavenly Father for
the privilege of meeting together
again in this the 19th session of the
Annual Conference of the W. H. M. S.

2. That we express our gratitude
and appreciation to the Methodist ladies of Ada and our hostesses for
their cordiality and kind hospitality.

3. That we tender our thanks to the Press and all others who have contributed to the interest of our
work.

4. That we have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful recitations and music given during our various sessions
by the choir and others.

5. That we thank the ministers,
presiding elders, and other brethren
for their kindly interest and services
and pray God's richest blessings may
ever be on this church and people.

DUEL WITH KNIVES IN

Muskogee, Okla., June 5.—Frank Sterling, was fatally stabbed by Henry Draper, this afternoon. The two men are ferry boatmen and armed with knives fought a duel in the presence of a big Sunday crowd which gathered at Hyde Park on the lying in the boat Draper escaped in a skiff and has not yet been apprehended. The cause of the fight is unknown. Draper cut a large gash in Sterling's abdomen, severing the in-trails.

Shorty Brownfield, Farmer Boy Living Near Ada Shot and Killed
by "Unloaded Gun."

Saturday about one o'clock in the afternoon Shorty Brownfield, who lived on a farm seven miles east of here was accidentally shot and killed
by his little six year old brother.
The two brothers, aged sixteen and
six respectively were hoeing cotton
and it seems had a gun in the field
with them. They had been working with the gun, having snapped it two
or three times and, as it failed to report, thought it was unloaded. The younger boy playfully said to his brother, "if you don't show me how
to work this gun I am going to shoot
you," and pointing it at his brother's
head pulled the trigger. The gun
fired, the older boy fell fatally wounded with a gunshot wound over his
left eye. The poor boy survived only
a short time dying Sunday morning.

And thus another life is bought
with the price of an unloaded gun.

THINGS THAT ARE SUPREME

REV. RANDOLPH COOK OF ENID
DELIVERS INSPIRING BACCA-
LAUREATE SERMON.

ADVICE TO THE GRADUATES

Deals With Things That Should Be
Supreme in Every Life.

It was truly a magnificent congregation which filled the Methodist church to overflowing yesterday
morning and which was soon to hear
a magnificent sermon pregnant with truth and inspiration. The baccalaureate sermon which not only was deeply impressive to the E. C. N.
seniors, but to all who had the opportunity of hearing it was delivered
by the Rev. Randolph Cook of Enid.

Mr. Cook spoke on the topic, "Some Things That Are Supreme."

After congratulating the audience
and the school management on the
successful school year just closing,
Mr. Cook spoke in part as follows:

"The universe is God's great universe for the development of character. Here we find a multitude of teachers, speaking to us in all the
voices of earth and air, nature and grace, Moses and the prophets, Jesus and the apostles, and all the men who have illuminated the world by
their thought and enriched it by their
example."

"The great problem in every age,"
said the speaker, "with every cause,
is the problem of the man. Diogenes
went through the streets of his city,
with lantern in hand, looking for a
man. That process is being repeated everywhere today. This is true in the church, business and in all walks of life. Because it is the supreme business of the schools to produce men
and women of high character, do we consider them today. First of all I wish to emphasize

1. A cultivated mind the Supreme
force in life.

The things that make a man great are his thoughts. They are the dominating, determining, controlling thing about a man. His clothes may be laid off at any time, his manners are often assumed, the tissues of the body
are regularly changed, but the thing
that abides is thought. It survives
all, and the thing we weave out of them is immortal. This is true of man, nations, ages, and eras. It is also true of duty.

"Knowledge is power," Archimedes
lover is not as great as his mind.
The pyramids are justly regarded as one of the wonders of the world, but the mind that conceived them is greater than they. Caesar ruled the world, and Alexander sighed for more worlds to conquer, but the modern cylinder press has outdone them
both. Back of Luther, Cromwell,
Washington and Lincoln were ideas—
a mighty invisible force—that were slowly undermining falsehood.

I trust, young people, that your
education has not taken you into a beautiful room, filled with the choicest productions of art, or the highest works of genius, but rather that
it has taken you to the mountain peak
of opportunity.

2. Obedience to Law the Supreme
Condition.

Obedience to law is the real condition of success in life, (1) in the realm of intellect, (2) in morals, and
(3) in the realm of religion. If you
keep the law, the law will keep you.

3. Love for Work the Supreme Motive.

Love is not only the law of religion, it is the law of civilization.
The immortal saviours of society have
been a few brave leaders who saw
that love and hate were at the zenith
and nadir of human development.
Love is the great dynamo of life. It is
a nightingale, and sings in the darkness. Disappointments come, but don't give up; life's battles are won by inspiration and not by fear. What the spring is to the watch, what the
fountain is to the stream, what the
soul is to the body, so is love to the life of man.

4. Character the Supreme Attainment.

Men are asking today, not so much,
"From What school does a man
come?" but "How much of a man is
he?"

"It is well to have good schools,
fine libraries, laboratories, and that
the graduates come out KNOWING
something, but it is infinitely better
that they come out being something."

"Everything in life is according to
a hidden pattern, and man too must
have his ideal of life."

After emphasizing these various
points, the speaker closed by saying:
"Young people I bid you go forward.
Welcome all that comes to you. The clouds will be your helpers. If you
only will it so. Look to the future,
and push on modestly, and never
boastingly, fearing neither time, nor
space, ocean or desert, nor any possible toil or sorrow, nor death. Life's

BOB ROLAND'S CHILD DIES

Thelma Frances, the little five-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
R. C. Roland, after a long-lingering illness died at an early hour yesterday morning. Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 4 o'clock, Rev. Leroy Anderson officiating, after which the little body was interred at Rosedale. The loss of this little daughter weighs all the heavier on the sorrow stricken parents, because they have been unfortunate with their children heretofore.

The News extends to them sympathy.
